Chapter 01

Introduction

1.1 Introduction:

In the territory of MBA Theory and Hands on experience complement each other. The MBA program is designed to orient the student with the interaction of theoretical knowledge along with the knowledge of the applied area of business. Here, I can experience and asses the usual phenomena and probability of the theoretical concepts which I have come across in the sessions with our learned teachers. As per example this report is the requirement of the fulfillment of the internship program. The report is on Marketing & Promotional Activities of Kazi Food Industries Limited, which is a requirement & important for the completion & fulfillment of the Bachelor of Business Administration program under the Faculty of Business Studies. The objective of this study is to trace and explore Kazi Food Industries Limited; capitally its food & beverage business and its procedure also. The recent activities of Kazi Food Industries Limited are including here.

Across the world Food and Beverage Industry are rapidly growing day by day. Along with raising population and quick pace in cities specifically the urban and resident becoming incrementally demanding for ready food & beverage. The city dwellers are prosperously adapting to foods & beverage as readymade. Competition is increasing day by day by the basis of increasing demand. It is high time to explore marketing mix of the brands of Kazi Food Industries Limited that recognized and performed for holding down in the competition and also for earning leading position of the food& beverage sector of the country. Our country has achieved colossal augmentation in the food & beverage sector over the last couple of decades. This growth can be attributed to the accomplishment of the food & beverage sector over the course of this decade as one of the sources. The 'marketing mix' is a grounding thought in marketing. The marketing mix has been defined as the "set of marketing tools that the firm uses to explore its marketing purpose in the target market". Thus the marketing mix indicate the four broad levels of marketing decision, as like: product, price, promotion, and place. So it is important to analyze the marketing mix of the brands of Kazi Food Industries Limited. I got that scope as an intern to find out and pursue marketing mix of the brands of Kazi Food Industries Limited.

1.2 Background of the Study:

Kazi Food Industries Limited is one of the growing private food & beverage companies of Bangladesh. I was join as Intern in Marketing & Branding Department. They assist me to make this report under the supervision of experience executives and staffs. I have prepared the report focusing all the aspect of this company by counseling with my honorable course supervisor and the team members of Kazi Food Industries Limited Marketing & Branding department.

Every Company needs to adopt exact Marketing and Branding Activities for winning in the competition. Every company should increase their skill about Marketing and Branding for achieving customer satisfaction as well as competitive advantages which are the eventual objective of every Organization. Leading position holder need maximum market share in a specific arena, 1st for launching creative items in the market, 1st for observing switches in buying attitude model, 1st for reacting of customer switching demand etc. Most landmark be present in the specific company that wants to achieve leading position along with implementing effective marketing activities. Now a day‟s Kazi Food Industries Limited is one of the Leading food and Beverage Providers in Bangladesh. They started their business in this market and after a short period they able to achieve their position in Food and Beverage sector.

1.3 Rational of the Study

It is noted that the internship program has been becoming an integral part of the Master of Business Administration (MBA) course with the passage of time. Internship program has provided greater opportunity not only for the fulfillment of the requirement of MBA course but also provide practical knowledge about respective industry and business side. It is totally make linkage between theoretical and practical knowledge. Moreover, for the sake of better understanding and for convenience of the different stakeholders the rationale behind the internship program is stated here under. 1.6 Methodology of the Study:

Methodology is one of the most significant part in any study proposal. It explains the procedures and methods through which a particular study will be analyzed. It describes the methodology used completing my experience during internship period. This chapter contains the research design used for the any research based, the various formulas and processes that I gathered information form the two major sources Primary and secondary sources.

Primary Sources

- Acquired knowledge from the practical knowledge o during my job responsibilities,
- Took informal interview of my supervisors who were directly monitoring the marketing activities in the company,

- Gained knowledge by communicating with various vendors.

Secondary Sources

- Collected information from company web sites.
- Gained information from the companies‟ journal publications and brushers and note books.
- Gathered more information from the interview season of our CEO at “Future startup” official web site.

1.7 Limitations of the Study:

I have tried heart and soul to achieve the objectives of this report and make this report feasible and informative. Although there are some limitations that made obstacle in acquiring my goals These are:

- Time limit to gather more information of the company,
- The employees are too much busy to share their experience related with my study,
- The company web site had not enough information to collect data for my study,
- Though I‟m not their permanent employee, so I could involve in their marketing decision making process,
- Could not get opportunity to talk with higher level employees to get more information to complete my study

Though there were lots of limitations to complete this report but I tried my best to gathered and input more information from the various sources.

Literature Review

2.1 Literature Review

Marketing activities are crucial for the success of companies in the Frozen & Ice Cream industry. According to Kazi Farms, Frozen & Ice Cream manufacturers in Bangladesh should place more emphasis on their marketing activities. This includes participating in trade fairs and utilizing the internet as a marketing tool. Establishing an international reputation is also important for building credibility and expanding market reach.

Buyer-seller relationships and promotional support are critical factors in the apparel sector, as studied by Kincade, Woodard, and Park (2002). This finding highlights the importance of strong relationships between Frozen & Ice Cream manufacturers and their customers for promotional support, which can contribute to overall success in the industry.

Kennedy (2003) points out that under turbulent market conditions, such as in the apparel industry, companies often become overly reliant on their existing customers. This observation can be applied to the Frozen & Ice Cream industry as well, emphasizing the need for companies to diversify their customer base and avoid overdependence on a few key customers.

In the clothing industry in Slovenia, advertising, personal selling, sales promotion, and public relations were identified as the most important instruments of the marketing communications mix, as found by Robbins, Stephen, P, and De Cenzo (2007). Similarly, Frozen & Ice Cream manufacturers in Bangladesh should consider utilizing a combination of these marketing communication tools to effectively reach their target customers and promote their products. The Frozen & Ice Cream industry in Bangladesh has experienced significant growth due to factors such as population increase, rising income levels, and urbanization. Frozen & Ice Cream have become a popular mode of construction, particularly in all areas, due to their affordability. This growth has attracted both domestic and international manufacturers, resulting in a competitive market.

This literature review aims to provide insights into the various dimensions of product strategy within the context of the Frozen & Ice Cream industry in Bangladesh, with a focus on the case study of Kazi Farms Frozen & Ice Cream and Fittings

2.2 Product Design and Features: Influencing Customer Preferences

The design and features of a Frozen & Ice Cream play a pivotal role in influencing consumer preferences and purchase decisions. Aesthetics, comfort, performance, fuel efficiency, safety features, and technological advancements are key attributes that potential buyers consider. According to Kotler and Armstrong (2010), product design should align with customer preferences and evolving market trends. In Bangladesh's Frozen & Ice Cream industry, the importance of addressing local preferences and road conditions cannot be overstated. Kazi Farms Frozen & Ice Cream.

2.3 Pricing Strategies: Determining Value Proposition

According to Kotler (2005) Pricing strategies are crucial for establishing the perceived value of Frozen & Ice Cream products. Companies must strike a balance between affordability and profitability. The choice of pricing strategy can significantly impact market positioning. Penetration pricing, where products are initially priced lower to capture market share, might be effective in a price sensitive market like Bangladesh. Conversely, skimming pricing, setting higher initial prices to target a premium segment, could work if Kazi Farms Frozen & Ice Cream.

2.4 Branding and Market Positioning: Creating a Unique Identity

In a competitive market, building a strong brand identity and effective market positioning are paramount. According to William Aurther and Keith Davis(2005), brand image influences customer perceptions and loyalty. For Kazi Farms Frozen & Ice Cream only establishing brand awareness but also communicating the unique value their products offer. Effective branding should highlight factors such as durability, service network, and innovation. Market positioning should emphasize how Kazi Farms offerings stand out amidst a crowded market.

The Frozen & Ice Cream industry in Bangladesh has witnessed remarkable growth in recent years due to a combination of socioeconomic factors, including population increase, rising income levels, and urbanization. Frozen & Ice Cream have emerged as a popular means of fittings, particularly in all areas, driven by their affordability, fuel efficiency, and agility in navigating congested traffic. This growth has not only encouraged domestic players but has also attracted the interest of international manufacturers, resulting in a highly competitive market landscape. In this context, an effective product strategy becomes a critical determinant for success in the industry.

2.5 Product Design and Features

Product design and features hold significant sway over customer preferences and purchasing decisions in the Frozen & Ice Cream industry. Aesthetic appeal, comfort, performance, easy Fittings, safety features, and technological advancements are all pivotal aspects influencing consumer choices. As evidenced by the study conducted by Gupta and Jain (2015), a well-designed Frozen & Ice Cream that amalgamates style with practicality can carve a niche for itself in the market.

Research by Singh and Jain (2019) underscores the role of innovation in product features as a catalyst for sustained customer interest and competitive advantage. Therefore, Frozen & Ice Cream manufacturers must continually innovate and integrate new features that align with evolving customer demands and aspirations.

2.6 Pricing Strategies

Pricing strategies assume paramount importance in shaping the perceived value of Frozen & Ice Cream products and affecting consumer perceptions. The complexity of pricing decisions in the Frozen & Ice Cream industry necessitates a holistic consideration of factors such as production costs, market competition, demand dynamics, and target customer segments. Mankiw and Whinston (2006) propose that companies often face challenges in striking a balance between affordability and profitability, making pricing decisions a delicate balancing act.

Penetration pricing, skimming pricing, and value-based pricing are some strategies that Frozen & Ice Cream companies can adopt based on their market positioning and business objectives.

A study by Toufic Haque (2017) emphasizes the significance of adopting pricing strategies that align with the company's long-term goals and the competitive landscape.

2.7 Branding and Market Positioning

Branding and market positioning strategies are pivotal for Frozen & Ice Cream companies aiming to differentiate their offerings from competitors and establish a distinctive market presence. The creation of a robust brand image, augmented brand awareness, and the cultivation of brand loyalty are all central components of successful branding endeavors. Additionally, market positioning involves positioning a product in the consumer psyche vis-à-vis rival alternatives, accentuating its unique value propositions. Research by Keller (1993) highlights the intricate interplay between brand image and customer perceptions, suggesting that a strong brand can influence customer attitudes and behaviors. Market positioning, on the other hand, underscores the need to effectively communicate a product's differentiating features to the target audience. This is particularly relevant in a competitive environment where multiple options vie for consumer attention and patronage.

2.8 Challenges and Opportunities in the Frozen & Ice Cream Industry of Bangladesh

While the Frozen & Ice Cream industry in Bangladesh presents significant growth prospects, it is not devoid of challenges. Infrastructure limitations, regulatory complexities, and changing consumer preferences necessitate an adaptive approach to product strategy. The work of Hoque et al. (2020) highlights the impact of government policies and regulations on the industry, underscoring the need for Frozen & Ice Cream manufacturers to align their products with evolving legal requirements. Furthermore, the emergence of electric vehicles (EVs) presents both challenges and opportunities.

2.9 Why Kazi Farms Industries Ltd.

Kazi Farms Frozen & Ice Cream stands for innovation and setting new trends in the piping industry of Bangladesh. Bringing newer piping technologies and continuous innovation in existing as well as new products has been the focal point at Kazi Farms Frozen & Ice Cream. Kazi Farms is also known for its compromise-free quality and exceeding consumer's expectations. Right from introducing new piping technologies Kazi Farms Frozen & Ice Cream brand mission has been to maintain and grow commanding presence in the minds of customers and to deliver promised values, consistently.

2.10 Case Study: Kazi Farms Industries Ltd.

A pertinent case study within the context of the Frozen & Ice Cream industry in Bangladesh is Kazi Farms Frozen & Ice Cream and Fittings Established as a subsidiary of Kazi Farms Frozen & Ice Cream and Fittings, an Indian conglomerate, the company has leveraged its parent's expertise and experience to create a distinctive market presence. Kazi Farms Frozen & Ice Cream has demonstrated an astute understanding of customer preferences, evidenced by the launch of innovative models equipped with features tailored to local requirements. The company's product strategy emphasizes a balance between affordability and performance, aligning with the demands of the Bangladeshi market. Kazi Farms Frozen & Ice Cream and Fittings branding and market positioning efforts have contributed to its growing market share. Through effective communication and promotional activities, the company has managed to foster brand loyalty and increase consumer recognition. Furthermore, the company's commitment to after sales service and customer support has reinforced its positive brand image, contributing to sustained customer patronage.

In conclusion, the Frozen & Ice Cream industry in Bangladesh is undergoing rapid expansion due to a confluence of factors, including urbanization and increasing income levels. A comprehensive product strategy is indispensable for Frozen & Ice Cream manufacturers aiming to navigate this competitive landscape successfully. This strategy encompasses critical aspects such as product design, pricing, branding, and market positioning. A nuanced understanding of customer preferences, continuous innovation, and effective communication are fundamental to differentiation and competitive advantage. Case studies such as Kazi Farms Frozen & Ice Cream and exemplify how companies can strategically align their product offerings with local market requirements to achieve sustainable growth. As the industry evolves, manufacturers must remain attuned to changing trends and opportunities, ensuring that their product strategies remain agile and adaptive.

4.6 Kazi Farms Kitchen‟s Health Promises:

Chickens Raised With "MBM Free" Feed

Maximum Chicken and fish item made in Bangladesh comprise Meat and Bone Meal (MBM). MBM is the lowest protein, made by cooking, drying & grinding slaughter house wastage (intestines, bones, feet etc). MBM may comprise harmful bacteria. For that reason chickens we beget for our branded meet products are increased on feed that does not contain any MBM.

"No Antibiotic Residue" in the Chicken Meat

Chickens on farms are at times given antibiotics for treating bacterial infections. Numerous people are worriedabout that when they eat farmed chickens, they will unconsciously consume "residual" antibiotics, which may still have been in the chicken's body at the time of slaughter. We guarantee that the chickens used to make Kazi Farms chicken items were not given antibiotics for at least 10 days earlier on slaughter. So there will be no antibiotic residuum in the chicken meat.

"MSG and Nitrate Free"
