Abstract

The main object of the criminal justice system of the country is to protect crime, deter offender, punishing wrong doer etc. but after having the unitary best law and body of its enforcement the criminal justice system of the country yet not been ensured. Bangladesh got her independence on 16th December, 1971 and after 43 years of its independence it has not achieved reasonable success or development which the other country achieved after having independence next to Bangladesh. The main reason behind the development is corruption and criminal act with in the territory. And for the protection of those crimes enforcement of criminal justice system is mandatory. Finding the reason behind the non-administration of criminal justice system is the abstract of this research.
